The Combine The Combine

The Combine, The Combineâ€¦

((Take From Blink 182-I Miss You))

Hello there, the soldier from my nightmare

The army that took over earth within a night

We were unsuspecting victims, of your evil on Earth

You will beat me like a bitch if you want

You can always find the Rebels

You'll kill any day of the week.

And then you use the zombies against us.

You'll laugh and it'll never end.

Don't worry you bitch were are already

Finding Gordon (The Combine, The Combine)

Don't worry you bitch were are already

Finding Gordon (The Combine, The Combine)

He will kill you and I'm not sorry

I cannot wait, I'm so excited tonight

I will kill someone as always
These sick strange zombies
Come creeping on so haunting every night
And as I stared I counted
The times I hit the zombie
Little Headcrabs that are eating their insides
Like Gordon's about to do to you
And hear you're the squeal of your death
Gordon will take back Earth and stop this pain tonight
Stop this pain tonight
Don't worry you bitch were are already
Finding Gordon (The Combine, The Combine)
Don't worry you bitch were are already
Finding Gordon (The Combine, The Combine)
Don't worry you bitch were are already
Finding Gordon (The Combine, The Combine)
Don't worry you bitch were are already
Finding Gordon (The Combine, The Combine)
